Excavations On Palatine Hill Reveals Church Of Fifth Century.

ROME, May 9—The excavations now being carried on, on the Palatine hill resulted yesterday in the discovery of the ruins of a church of the fifth century. This building originally was a private chapel used by the first Christian emperors of Rome. After moving to Constantinople, the emperors continued sending sacred images to the chapel. The church was dedicated to St. Cesario. Popes Sergius I and Eugene III were elected in the building.

IT MAKES A DIFFERENCE.

It makes all the difference in the world to the convivial man where, and what, he drinks. Most men desire beauty and cleanliness, and handsome appointments in the saloon they patronize regularly, as well as the essential pre-requisite of genuine wines and liquors that are served to them. And these things are so particularly and properly conspicuous at Otto Sund's elegant resort, the Commercial, at No. 509 on the street of that name that they account thoroughly for the fixed and splendid custom he enjoys. There is nothing allowed to pass his counter but the best and choicest in every department of indulgence, and the service behind it all, is the most pleasing and satisfying in the city.

FOR SERVICE AND CONVENIENCE

The prime essential of a business establishment is to have it open for the purposes of business when it is needed; not closed by custom nor any rule of hours. This essential attaches to the drug store of Dr. C. E. Linton at 155 Eleventh street, which is open every one of the 24 hours in the day; and with a stock that meets every requirement likely to arise in that time. It is one of the exceptions and is thoroughly endorsed.

For The Little People.

Every parent in this city should investigate, at once, the new and appreciable shoe for the youngsters, at Charles V. Brown's Commercial street house. They are called the "E. C. Scuffer" and are the very epitome of good wear and real comfort. They are going like wild-fire and the kids themselves are after them because they look so "comfy."

Arthur Smith is a master of the art of preparation and service, of all things edible.
